The climate of education today has changed, slowly but surely shifting towards a spectrum that values academic excellence or what is in students' trophy case above all, but should this be what education is truly about?

Established by the Kowloon Tong Church of the Chinese Christian and Missionary Alliance, Christian Alliance International School (CAIS) is an international school that provides Christian education from preparatory to grade 12 with the Canadian curriculum of Alberta Education. The school is also in the process of gaining the accreditation to offer the International Baccalaureate (IB) programs.

Aspiring to cultivate learners with knowledge, skills, integrity and discernment, growing in love for God and service to humanity, the school offers students a transformative educational experience, empowering them to fulfill their potential as Christian leaders and global citizens.

"At CAIS, we strive not to be the best school in Hong Kong, but the best school for Hong Kong. We pride ourselves in growing not only students' knowledge and talents, but their hearts as well, instilling in them the Christian value and a heart of compassion that will allow them to have a positive impact in the future of our world," said Richard Vanderpyl, Head of School, CAIS.

Inside CAIS's well equipped campus which is expected to complete its expansion soon, students are immersed in a nurturing and stimulating learning environment allowing them to have a well balanced development. Upon completion, the school will have five laboratories, two gymnasiums, a football pitch, a 300-seat lecture theater, a 600-seat concert theater, and more, allowing students to pursue their true interests and passions.

"Community is extremely important for us at CAIS. We do not measure children by what they can achieve; every child is unique as they are created by God. All of our teachers are Christians, and when our students come to school, they learn with their family of teachers and friends without inhibition," said Vanderpyl.
